

This information comes from Ellen Hallor at Goodnow Library Children's Dept:
Please run in the next two issues of the Town Crier.

Goodnow Library Children's Dept. announces its introductory book discussion meetings for current third graders. These spring meetings for third graders are a prelude to the year long discussion meetings for fourth and fifth graders and provide an opportunity to enjoy discussion quality stories in a friendly environment and to meet other children who love to read.

The meetings will be held on Wed. evenings from 7 to 7:45 on Apr. 16th and May 21st. Refreshments will be served. Sign-ups for the group begin on Monday, March 17th in person at the Children's Dept. The title selected for the first meeting is The Kid who ran for President by Dan Gutman. Copies of the book will be available for check-out at that time. For further information or questions call the Children's Dept. at 978-443-1035.

Spring meetings for the fourth and fifth grade groups will continue in April and May with fourth graders scheduled to meet on Apr. 9th and May 14th and fifth graders on Apr. 2nd and May 7th. The April title for fourth graders is Letters from Rifka by Karen Hesse, and for fifth graders is The Gammage Cup by Carol Kendall.